

Unipart Rail's Capital Office

Unipart Rail, the UK's leading railway Supply Chain Management and Logistics company, opened its London office on Thursday 1st February 2007.

The London office will further support Unipart Rail's customers based in the capital: Transport for London, London & South East Train Operating Companies, Rolling stock companies, Network Rail, London Underground, Tube Lines and Metronet.

The office, at Regent's Place on Euston Road, will be the centre of operations for Unipart Rail's Head of London Business Development, Bob Yarlett, and Supply Chain Manager, Dave Gibbs.

Bob said, 'Customer response to establishing a permanent presence in London has been very positive and we look forward to working with the other major players in developing the rail systems in this important region'.

He continued, 'Over the next few years in the run up to 2012 there will be a great deal of activity in enhancing the transportation network of the South East and Unipart Rail are ideally placed to support this activity with Lean processes development, logistical and materials management expertise and product supply.'
